NCUA Regional Town Hall Meetings Continue Dialogue with Industry

NCUA to host 3 Town Halls next week, 5 more through end of month

October 7, 2010, Alexandria, Va. – The series of National Credit Union Administration Regional Town Hall meetings aimed at discussing new corporate rules and corporate legacy asset resolution, continues next week with sessions in Atlanta, Detroit, and Columbus, Ohio. Additional Town Halls will convene throughout the month, finishing October 29.

“The Town Hall format has proven to be valuable for all participants. From NCUA’s perspective, we always garner significant insights and information from the credit union stakeholders in attendance, and we hope that NCUA is able to provide relevant information that adds to the knowledge and understanding of the issues at hand. I hope that the credit union industry takes full advantage of these opportunities to hear and be heard,” said NCUA Chairman Debbie Matz.

Registration is open for each of the following upcoming NCUA Town Hall Meetings:

October 12	Atlanta, GA JW Marriott Atlanta Buckhead	1:30 - 4:30 PM EDT
October 13	Detroit, MI Crowne Plaza Detroit Metro Airport	1:00 - 4:00 PM EDT
October 15	Columbus, OH Greater Columbus Convention Center	1:00 - 4:00 PM PDT

October 18	Chicago, IL Chicago Marriott Downtown Magnificent Mile	1:00 - 4:00 PM CDT
October 19	Washington, DC Area Embassy Suites Alexandria-Old Town (VA)	1:00 - 4:00 PM EDT
October 21	Phoenix, AZ Hyatt Regency Phoenix	1:00 - 4:00 PM MDT

The Town Hall Meetings are open to all credit union stakeholders, and NCUA encourages audience participation.

NCUA is the independent federal agency that regulates, charters and supervises federal credit unions. With the backing of the full faith and credit of the U.S. government, NCUA operates and manages the National Credit Union Share Insurance Fund, insuring the deposits of over 90 million account holders in all federal credit unions and the overwhelming majority of state-chartered credit unions.
